

*Home Stay:
Carmen Sánchez*

Doña Carmen Sánchez is a kind woman who enjoys playing games on the computer and cooking. She is a sweet woman who likes to sit down and chat in her living-room when she has guests. Her favorite color is red.

Doña Carmen lives with her husband, Alexis Araya, and their two children. Their daughter, Yendry, is a University student. She likes to go out with her friends, especially to dance at the discoteque. Their son, Jose Mario, is in high school and he likes playing soccer and computer games.

Carmen and her husband go together to the Agricultural Fair in Heredia every Friday to sell products from their farm. Their house is in a town called "El Futuro de La Tigra". They have two small dogs, and they are sometimes visited by Carmen's mother, nieces, sister, or little grandsons.

The family has 3 horses which they like to ride around the area and in special festivities. They like to watch soccer games and go for walks. In their house, they have two individual rooms available for volunteers which each have an individual bed and a laundry basket. Their house also has internet service and a hot water shower.
